

Scottish Land & Estates is holding a series of Housing Roadshows in August. The Roadshows will provide an overview of the main changes in housing and answer any queries you have.

Scottish Land & Estates' head of policy Katy Dickson will be joined by Clare Dunlop a senior associate at Turcan Connell, and a representative from the Scottish Government at the Roadshows.

Housing is a key aspect to many rural businesses. Never before have we seen such a focus on the private rented sector in terms of supply, condition, rent and tenant security. Private sector landlords and their agents must begin to prepare for the implementation of the recent changes in order to be compliant and protect their interests.

Topics covered will include:

- The new Private Residential Tenancy 9 months on - Clare Dunlop
- Energy Efficiency - Scottish Government
- Other Housing Updates - Katy Dickson

We strongly urge anybody with let property interests, whether as an owner or agent, to attend their nearest event.
